

The Dark Night

by Chris Haydon, p. 36

God incarnate finds us even in the shadows of our fears and failures.

1. When do you remember feeling afraid of the dark?
2. Have you ever experienced comfort being in the dark?
3. How does the quote from Brennan Manning in this article help dispel the fear of what we may find if we look deep within ourselves?
4. What can we learn from the shepherds in the Nativity story?
5. Chris Haydon has quoted the same passage by Frederick Buechner in his Christmas Eve sermons for the past thirty-five years. Which part of that quote is the most meaningful to you?
