

Jesus in the Mocking Robe

by Karen Hinz, p. 46

What happens when our majestic God show up in rags?

1. Karen Hinz opens her article with the grandeur of an ornate basilica. Describe a time when you were awestruck by a majestic worship space.
2. When do you most often see God as he appeared in Isaiah's vision – glorious, powerful, and big?
3. What makes you uncomfortable about the description of the robe placed on Jesus by the soldiers just before his crucifixion?
4. The people of Jerusalem were taken by surprise because they were expecting strength and got humility. When has God stepped into your need in an unexpected way?
5. Hinz describes silence and humility as a response to the Jesus of Lent. What could this look like in your everyday life?
