

In Desperate Times, The E-word Needs a Remix

by Jelani Greenidge, p. 29

Jelani Greenidge suggests a simple change to revive evangelism.

1. How are evangelicals perceived by today's culture?
2. How might the term "evangelical" be detrimental to evangelism?
3. What do you think Jelani Greenidge's suggestion of adding "re" to the front end of evangelical does to the meaning of the word?
4. What changes do you think need to happen in order to restore "evangelical"?
5. Do you think "evangelical" should be taken out of our denominational name? What word could be an appropriate substitute?
