

Heaven in Need

by Lauren Carlson, p. 53

Amid the demands and expectations of Advent, we remain open to catching a glimpse of heaven.

1. Lauren Carlson describes a day at Lake Beauty Bible Camp that was like “catching a glimpse of the kingdom of heaven.” What place or day has recently made you feel the same way?
2. What activities of the Christmas season tend to overwhelm you?
3. Do you agree with the quote from Brené Brown about compassionate people?
4. What is significant about the limits God placed on himself when he came to earth as an infant?
5. What does Carlson mean when she says, “Maybe the way to remind myself of God’s grace is to do not more but less”?
