

Can Anything Good Come from a Rural Church?

By Jodi Moore, p. 39

Why one pastor loves the rural church

1. What images come to mind when you think about rural living?
2. What relational connections happen in rural churches that would be rare in an urban context?
3. Did anything surprise you about rural churches from this article?
4. Did anything make you view pastors of rural congregations differently?
5. In the Gospel of John, Nathanael asked Philip, “What good can come from Nazareth?” What “good” do you see coming from your own church?
