

Committed to the Dream

By Stan Friedman, p. 48

How retiring CHET president Ed Delgado's own path to education prepared him to lead a new generation of Latino and Latina students to serve the church

1. How did your parent's education influence your own educational experience?
2. What surprised you about Ed Delgado's university entrance exam experience?
3. CHET is the Covenant's ministry training center for Spanish-speaking clergy and laypeople. How is the work of CHET important?
4. The Delgados felt welcomed by the Covenant church in Colorado Springs when they had to move into their home before their possessions were delivered. Have you ever been on the receiving end of that kind of generosity?
5. What stood out to you most about CHET or Ed Delgado's ministry?