

Becoming Enough

By Christine Chang, p. 19

Even though the world continuously demands more, we can rest in the truth of our own enough-ness.

1. In what area do you see your church most often striving to be enough?
2. Regarding goals for a diverse workforce, how might the “not enough” mindset “objectify the very people such strategic goals are meant to benefit”?
3. Christine Chang says, “As we pray, ‘Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,’ the transformation of grace starts first in our own hearts and allows us to see our true worth.” What examples or personal experiences can you cite to support this statement?
4. What helps you believe that you are enough in Christ?
