

The Mothership

Dana Bowman, p. 36

Women, church, and healing

1. What uncomfortable article of clothing do you remember wearing as a child?
2. In your own story who would you say has brought you through a particularly difficult season in life?
3. Of the four women described in this story, who would you feel most connected to in your current stage of life?
4. How do these supportive relationships within the church differ from friendships in the secular world?