

The Day I'll Never Forget

Michelle Sanchez as told to Erin Chan Ding, p. 46

How the trauma of 9/11 brought me to a new awakening

1. Where were you on the morning of September 11, 2001?
2. Michelle Sanchez's account of her coworkers during 9/11 conveys a wide range of responses to the tragedy. Which is the most surprising to you?
3. Sanchez did not feel ready to die on the bridge walking home. What would you want to change or improve if you were facing the possibility of death?
4. How do you balance your faith and your desire for financial security?
5. Sanchez made a drastic life change from working on Wall Street to a vocation in ministry. What choices have you felt called to make about your own career?
