Serving the world without leaving the wharf—the far-reaching ministry of the New England Seafarers Mission

1. What was the most luxurious vacation you ever took?
2. What experience have you had working in the service industry?
3. After reading about the New England Seafarers Mission, how would you define their mission?
4. What thoughts come to mind in reaction to Stephen Cushing's description of the "Disney face" that cruise ship employees maintain when serving passengers?
5. How would you define hospitality? In what ways could NESM's ministry inspire you to practice hospitality in your own sphere of influence?
